

INTOSAI WGEA MOOC: Auditing Waste Management

Ms Kaire Kesküla, National Audit Office of Estonia
Spring Session on Waste & Circular Economy, 8 May 2019

Background

- Waste – top environmental issue that SAIs around the world have audited and continue to audit
- Updated INTOSAI WGEA waste audit guidelines (2016)
- NAO Estonia's experiences with developing MOOCs, including EUROSAI WGEA water-MOOC
- Waste MOOC: INTOSAI WGEA project led by NAOE

Structure of the course

- Module 1: The concept of waste. Waste-related problems
- Module 2: Waste management principles and economics
- Module 3: Waste management actors and policy tools
- Module 4: Designing a waste audit

Home

Study guide

Study materials

References

Course team

Study materials

Module 1. The concept of waste. Waste related problems

After completing the first module, you will know the concept of waste along with the main types of waste and understand the potential impacts waste may have on the environment.

Module 1. The concept of waste. Waste related problems

1.1. Definition and classification of waste

1.2. Global generation of waste

Methodology

Course testing

Exercises and tests

Illustrative videos

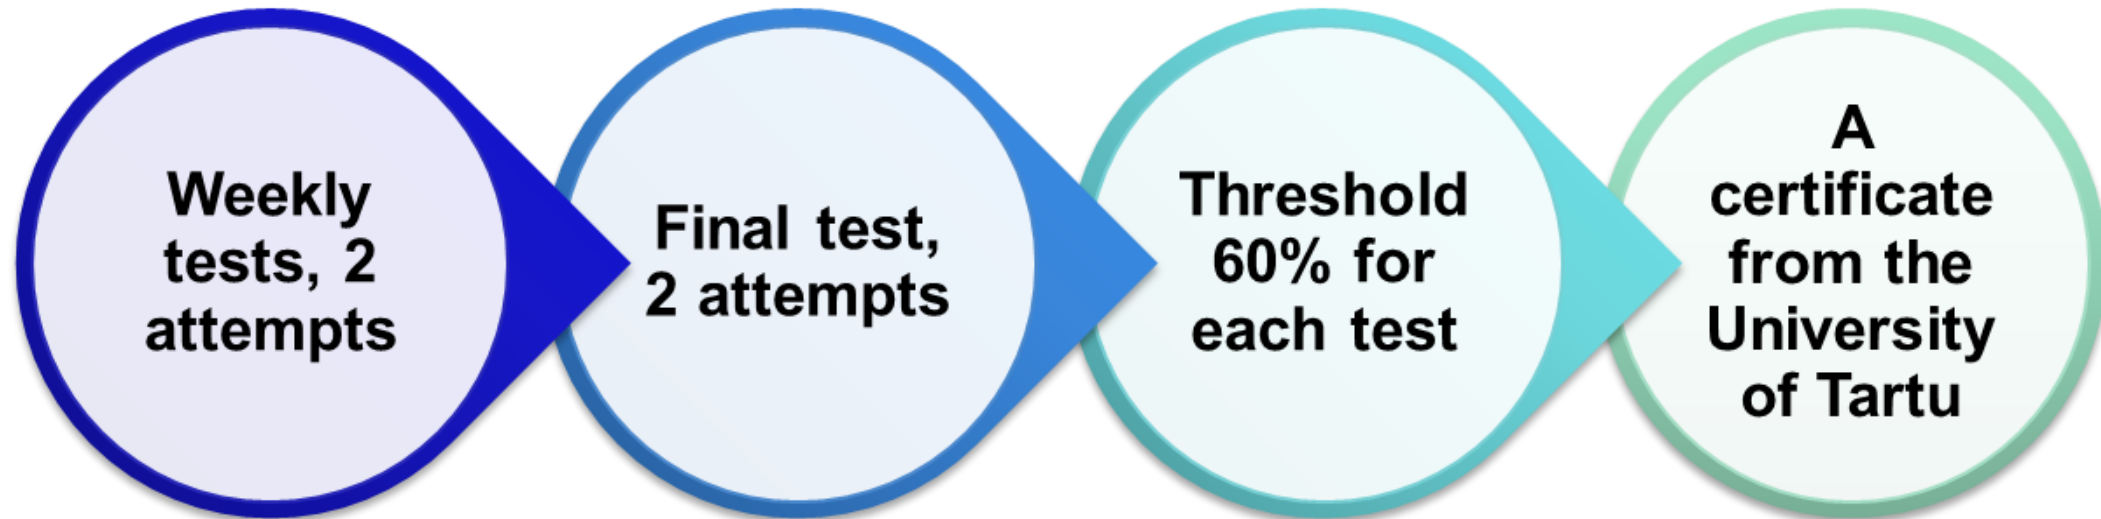

Case studies

INTOSAI WGEA
materials

Literature review

Grading and certificate

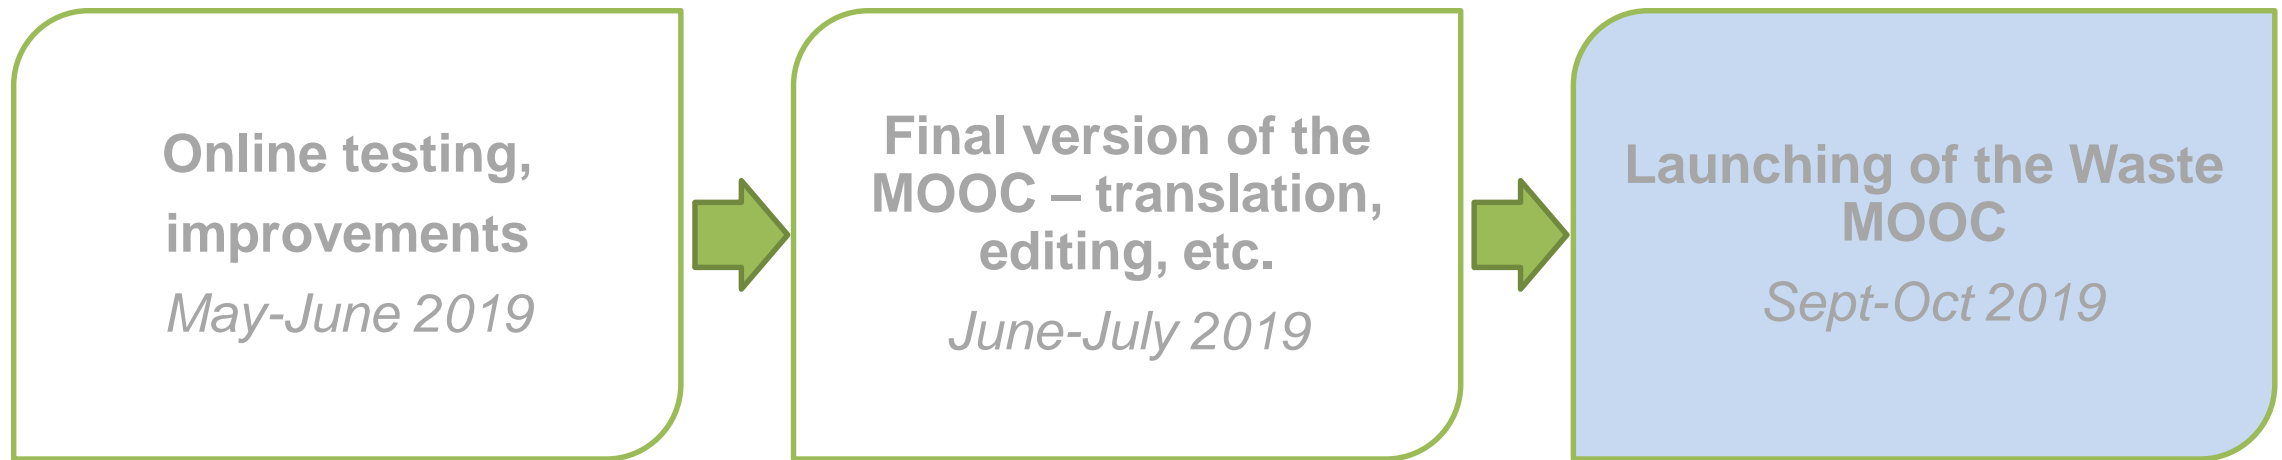

Cooperation with University

- Cooperation agreement with the University of Tartu
- Technical realisation and support
- Listing in the University's e-learning courses

Top 1% of the world's most-cited universities and research institutions

Project milestones

INTOSAI
Working Group on Environmental Auditing

Thank you!

riigikontroll

National Audit Office of Estonia

MOOC
MASSIVE OPEN ONLINE COURSE

More information at:
kaire.keskula@riigikontroll.ee

